FNBT partners with First Baptist Church for school supplies

First National Bank Blanchard will partner with First Baptist Church to provide backpacks, school supplies and free haircuts for students in kindergarten through grade 12, as well as food and games at the back-to-school Love Out Loud community event on July 29 at the Blanchard High School Commons from 5:30-7 p.m.

“If students are out of town, the remaining items from the Love Out Loud event will be donated to the local schools and kept in offices so that students may continue to get the new items they need for class,” LOL Event Coordinator Angelia Farrell said.

FNBT Teller Diane Adams along with LOL Event Coordinator Angelia Farrell, FNBT Manager Pam Moorehead, Assistant Manager Kayla Southard, Deposit Banker Dixie Elston and MultiBanker Ashley Raney provided a $500 donation towards the program on July 25.

“This donation not only came from our bankers but multiple community members donated to help the cause too,” Moorehead said. “We are happy partnering with First Baptist Church and continue to fund school supplies for children in need in the future.”
