Realtors learn mortgage options

What steps does a customer need to take in order to qualify for a mortgage loan? This answer was discussed in a realtor's lunch and learn hosted by First National Bank Mortgage Lender Dana Davis on Feb. 26.

As realtors gathered in the bank's community room, Senior Vice President Ed Stanton introduced Dana Davis and offered a Mexican fajita dish provided by BJ's Pizza and Grill to all the guests.

During lunch Davis introduced her team and spoke about the mortgage option programs including rates and introduced some of the newest programs offered at FNBT like the HUD 184 loan.

"We are excited to now offer an easier way to apply for a mortgage loan," Davis said. "Now our customers can apply online by going to bankfnbt.zipforhome.com to fill out an application and we will immediately receive it once it is submitted."

At the conclusion of the program, Davis answered many questions, handed each guest a specialized coffee mug and presented two door prizes to realtors.
