Realtors expand their minds with all the new FNBT mortgage options

Local realtors' lunch and learn about First National Bank mortgage options from FNBT Vice President Mortgage Lender Dana Davis and Bank2 Correspondent Account Executive Betty Shaw at the Rosewood Event Center in Rush Springs on Feb. 21.

FNBT Manager Kasey Englebretson, Assistant Manager Francene Coffman and Vice President Candace Jones prepared a house salad and baked potatoes with all the toppings for the attendees.

During lunch, Davis explained the multiple mortgage options including rates and introduced the newest programs offered at FNBT like the HUD 184 loan which was further explained by Shaw.

"Everyone loves options; with the multiple programs we have available now, we truly make it simple for future home owners," Davis said. "I value the partnership Betty and I share when educating the realtors on the many options."

Ending the program, Englebretson presented door prizes and handed out homemade FNBT house decorated cookies.

In preparation for the lunch and learn event hosted by First National Bank, Vice President Candace Jones, Assistant Manager Francene Coffman, Senior Vice President Mike Van Sickle, Vice President Mortgage Lender Dana Davis and Manager Kasey Englebretson welcomed realtors as they enter the Rosewood Event Center on Feb. 21.
