Bankers support Bulldogs in parade

A little rain did not stop the First National Bank employees from staying afloat during the Minco Bulldog homecoming parade on Sept. 7. Teller Haley Williams, Multibanker Ashlie Johnson along with Assistant Vice President Tonya Holding and Vice President Robyn Vickrey threw footballs and candy down the streets of Minco before the football game last Friday night where the Bulldogs played the Crossings Christian School, the Knights. “The Bulldogs fought hard during the game but the real treat was seeing who the new homecoming King and Queen would be,” Williams said. “I truly enjoy working for a bank that continues to be involved in hometown traditions.”
