FNBT donates towards the Backpack for Kids program

Statistics show one in four children in Oklahoma live in a household that is struggling to put food on the table.

First National Bank employees want to help make a difference by supporting the Backpack for Kids program designed by hunger-relief organization in the state, Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma by donating $5,000 toward the cause.

Through Backpacks for Kids program, children can receive a backpack full of kid-friendly, non-perishable and nutritious food on Fridays to sustain them for the weekends and school holidays.

The program served 473 Grady County elementary students in the 2017-2018 school year, with 245 of those students in the Chickasha school district. FNBT has partnered with Regional Food Bank for the past 10 years to serve our communities.

First National Bank employees provide a $5,000 donation to the Regional Food Bank program called Backpacks for Kids on Sept. 11. Presenting the check to Regional Food Bank Manager of Corporate Engagement Jennifer Eckert, is FNBT Managers Beverly White and Sharon Bowman along with Senior Vice President of Communications Randy Talley.
