Warrior fans swipe for school spirit program

Pioneer Warriors celebrate another victorious year of school pride during the Rise and Shine assembly on Dec. 18. First National Bank Assistant Manager Hydie Wilkins (right) and Teller Tosha Hocutt (left) presented the donation of $1,237 to the school. For every swipe of the debit card, FNBT makes a donation to the school, which is awarded at the end of the year. This means within one year, Pioneer students and families used their debit cards enough to raise more than $1,000 for their school. “The faculty and parents both are involved in the children’s lives at Pioneer,” Hocutt said. “They want to make sure the children receive the best education and having extra funds like this donation is helping the school achieve that goal.”
